2. FURTHER ACTION

If a demand for international preliminary examination is made, this opinion will usually be considered to be a written opinion of the International Preliminary Examining Authority ("IPEA"). However, this does not apply where the applicant chooses an Authority other than this one to be the IPEA and the chosen IPEA has notified the International Bureau under Rule 66.1bis(b) that written opinions of this International Searching Authority will not be so considered.

If this opinion is, as provided above, considered to be a written opinion of the IPEA, the applicant is invited to submit to the IPEA a written reply together, where appropriate, with amendments, before the expiration of three months from the date of mailing of Form PCT/ISA/220 or before the expiration of 22 months from the priority date, whichever expires later.

For further options, see Form PCT/ISA/220.

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.
PCT/IB2004/050220

Box No. I Basis of the opinion

1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.
☐ This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language , which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rules 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
 - a. type of material:
☐ a sequence listing
☐ table(s) related to the sequence listing
 - b. format of material:
☐ in written format
☐ in computer readable form
 - c. time of filing/furnishing:
☐ contained in the international application as filed.
☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3. ☐ In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

Box No. II Priority

1. ☒ The following document has not been furnished:

☒ copy of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed (Rule 43*bis*.1 and 66.7(a)).

☐ translation of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed (Rule 43*bis*.1 and 66.7(b)).

Consequently it has not been possible to consider the validity of the priority claim. This opinion has nevertheless been established on the assumption that the relevant date is the claimed priority date.

2. ☐ This opinion has been established as if no priority had been claimed due to the fact that the priority claim has been found invalid (Rules 43*bis*.1 and 64.1). Thus for the purposes of this opinion, the international filing date indicated above is considered to be the relevant date.

3. Additional observations, if necessary:

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43*bis*.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

	No: Claims	1-10

Box No. VII Certain defects in the international application

The following defects in the form or contents of the international application have been noted:

Re Item V.

- 1 The following document is referred to in this communication:
D1 : WO 99/13463 A (DEN ENDEN GIJSBERT JOSEPH VAN ; KONINKL
PHILIPS ELECTRONICS NV (NL); P) 18 March 1999 (1999-03-18)

D2 : US-A-4,366,564

D3 : EP-A-1276101
- 2 The feature of independent claim 1 relating to the pregroove comprising a pregroove modulation constituted by pregroove pit areas having a predefined width and depth alternating with pregroove land areas having a reduced depth or a zero depth, appears to be very broad in definition as it reflects any type of pit and land shape and form already known from the general prior art related to pit and land areas in a pregroove. The same argument applies to the feature related to the majority of land areas being located at zero crossings. Here the word majority for both land and pit areas imparts unclarity to the claimed subject-matter. To this end the same argumentation applies to the wording "less pregroove land areas".

Should the literal meaning of said features be taken into account to the extent it can be understood, then the subject-matter of claims 1 and 2 is not new in view of D1, or D2 or D3.
3. The argumentation brought forward in item 2 above applies equally to claim 9.
4. Dependent claims 3-8 and 10 define trivial features known from general prior art and from either D1-D3 in particular.
5. It should also be noted that:
 - a) The independent claims are not in the two-part form in accordance with Rule 6.3(b) PCT, which in the present case would be appropriate, with those features known in combination from the prior art being placed in the preamble (Rule 6.3(b)(I) PCT) and with the remaining features being included in the characterising part (Rule 6.3(b)(ii) PCT).
